

Temporary Vendor Permit

Town of Greybull

(307)765-9431 – Fax (307)765-2409

24 S 5th St, PO Box 271, Greybull, WY 82426

I hereby apply to the Town of Greybull for a Temporary Vendor Permit. I agree to accept and abide by the following terms:

1. The vending business must be conducted on or within;
 - a. Commercial or business zones, unless granted a permit for a special event;
 - b. Established commercial or business property with the written permission of the business or property owner. This may include vacant property; and
 - c. Municipal property for a limited period of time for specific events upon approval by the governing body;
2. Mobile carts, vending machines and vending trailers, or any type of conveyance, along with the customers, must remain off of the public sidewalks;
3. The temporary vending stand, booth, cart or vehicle must be located so as to provide adequate parking for customers off the traveled portion of the street and to prevent congestion on public ways. The established business must be able to maintain its off-street parking requirements with the vendor present;
4. The site is subject to inspection at any time and a violation could cause immediate revocation of the permit;
5. State of Wyoming Sales and Use Tax License Shall be on file with the town for each permit;
6. For food vendors, a Wyoming Department of Agriculture Food License is also required to be on file with the town;
7. All required certificates must be displayed at the temporary business location as well as the Temporary Vendor Permit issued by the town; and
8. The Temporary Vendor Permit issued by the town is non-refundable and non-transferable.
